CHARLIE & JANET DAGGS

11710 Lipsey Road

The Daggs family (Charlie, Janet, three-year-old Anna and one year old Matt) rolled into Original Carrollwood (OC) in March of 1994.

It was exciting for our family to move into a home that was directly across Lake Lipsey from the home where Janet spent her teenage years.

Over the last 28 years, our family has enjoyed all the amenities of the OC from parades to the parks and from fireworks to fishing in our back yard. Our daughter trained for the TC cross country team by running through our beautiful neighborhood. Our son's first motorized vehicle purchase was a boat to have fun with his friends on Lake Carroll. Certainly, another highlight would be Christmas Eve Luminaries where we heard joyful shouts of "Go Gators" as people drove by our Orange and Blue Gator themed Christmas lights.

We are extremely proud to be a part of OC and humbled that we have been named Yard of the Month. We want to thank Domingo and his team from Hernandez Better Lawn and Garden for maintaining our lawn and Living Blooms for planting our focal point in the front yard.

Our kids grew up in OC and have now embarked on their own lives and neighborhoods in different cities. Janet and I along with our dog Columbia will continue to marvel at all that is good with OC from friends, neighbors and the next generation of families.

Email your nomination to:
YardoftheMonth@OriginalCarrollwood.com

Include: • Address of nominated yard • Reason for nomination • Your name, phone number, & email address • If possible, please include a photo of the yard with your nomination. Thank you! Nominations can also be made at the Community Center, at Board Meetings or by visiting the community website: www.OriginalCarrollwood.com

We had a great meeting in August with a good turnout of Board members and residents. Jim Blanco gave us an update on his Newcomers and Yard of the Month programs. Corey McKeown updated us on her standards enforcement activities. John Schinka reviewed our financials and Brian Huls updated us on a possible carp program for next spring for the lake. Finally, Jerrod Mills reviewed the July 4th activities, which were great! He also updated us on new events coming and the Halloween parade, which is right around the corner. Have a great end of summer!

The Austin Family

by Roxanne Clapp, Editor

Ruth and Jim Austin moved to OC in 1960 from Norfolk, Virginia, with their two children, Jim Junior and Carol, after a short stay in Fort Myers.

Carrollwood, as it was known then, was new. Along with the Austins, many of the University of South Florida's professors, deans and even the campus president moved to OC upon its creation. Back then, the neighborhood meetings consisted of about 75 families and they met at the old Sunstate building, now Bank of America, at the corner of Lake Carroll Way and Dale Mabry. Each month the residents would gather to catch up and have a neighborhood meeting.

The Austins originally lived on Orange Grove Drive. The story of why the family moved to Areca Road is a harrowing one.

It was a tornado in April 1966 that destroyed their home on Orange Grove Road, not a hurricane as noted in the previous issue. The F4 tornado was responsible for 11 deaths in Tampa and Polk County that day.

In addition to the Austin's home, the tornado also took out many beautiful Australian Pines on Lake Ridge Road and damaged as many as 150-158 homes in the Carrollwood and Temple Terrace areas.

Jim was traveling to Miami for business at the time and for a short period, without cell phones, emails, and text messages, he was lost. Thankfully, he was found unharmed.

Ruth recalls getting ready for the Garden Club, of which she was the president at the time, and looking outside and seeing the strangest orange-colored sky before the tornado hit. That tornado moved a large pine tree from their front yard into their living room. Ruth was home alone and was injured. Their children were at school at the time at Carrollwood Elementary. The school was not damaged. Ruth, in the meantime, was locked in their home unable to get out due to the large tree now in her living room. The roof was gone and it was "rainy like crazy" as she put it. A neighbor from Lake Carroll Way came to her rescue as she called out for help.

The National Guard came in to help protect the residents from looters during that time. Many of their neighbors also helped by giving them a place to stay until they found a rental on Coquina to call home until their real home was ready for the family.

A house on Lake Carroll Way was the meeting place for the tornado command center/docking station and that is where Jim found Ruth and the children.

The community really came together for the clean up and they were passing out sandwiches to the hungry workers and people that couldn't get back to their homes.

Ruth said they rebuilt on Areca Road because they loved the neighborhood and all their neighbors; they wanted to stay but did not want to rebuild at that 'frightening site on Orange Grove Road.' They moved into their Areca Road home in November 1966.

Jim worked in accounting for National Cash Register and Hillsborough County.

Their children went to Carrollwood Elementary, Adams Middle School and Chamberlain High School before earning their degrees at USF and pursuing their masters degrees. Both are doing well and living in Tampa on Lake Carroll, and one in Daytona Beach.

The Austin's traveled around the world by air in 1994 and almost all the way around the world by sea too. After travels to Israel, Bangkok, Bali, South Korea, Canada (by rail), Europe, Greece, Turkey, and more - (I couldn't keep up as Ruth listed off all the locations!), Carrollwood remains the favored location.

Ruth remembers fun gatherings at the Areca Circle block parties and a yard of orange trees, that bloom in January and February. Ruth's fondness for plants and gardening, along with the neighbors interested in developing their yards, is what led to the garden club. Although Ruth isn't doing much gardening these days, she still loves the Florida tropical plants.

"We really have enjoyed living here, and plan to stay here till the end," Ruth recounted during our conversation.

"This is home."

Ruth asked last month if there was anyone else living in the neighborhood older than her. I didn't think there was, but I have since learned Lula Dovi, another OC Original, is turning 100 in November. We hope to share more of her story in a future issue of The Caroler.

Are you a long-time resident of OC? Get in touch with me at Caroler@roxc.graphics or 813-991-1860 and share some stories of the old neighborhood.

Available in jurisdictions where approved and subject to eligibility requirements. Guarantees based on the claims-paying ability of the issuer.

Q&A

with Jack Parrish, OC Resident and NOAA Hurricane Hunter (retired)

Jack just before a hurricane flight, 2021

Q You actually flew INTO THE STORMS!? I really flew with the NOAA Hurricane Hunters as a flight director (meteorologist). Started in 1980 when we flew from the Miami International Airport, moved here in early 1993 based from MacDill AFB, relocated the office to Lakeland Linder airport in 2017 (but stayed right here in Original Carrollwood and commuted), and retired at the end of December 2021. 42 hurricane seasons flying, quite a ride.

Q What brought you to Original Carrollwood?

The NOAA flight outfit moved here after a lot of us lost our homes (our family too) in Hurricane Andrew (1992). One drive through Original Carrollwood was all it took!

Q Have you always lived in Florida? Yes, except for briefly in middle school in Huntsville, AL. My dad was an engineer who stayed busy with the NASA space program. I love to tell, if you see the large tower next to the Saturn 5 (moon) rocket, it's the Launching Umbilical Tower (LUT), my dad's design.

Q What is your favorite thing about living in OC? Friendly neighbors, drivers and sidewalks. Jeanine and I are out there running, walking, cycling and sailing as often as possible.

Q What OC Events do you like to attend? Fireworks for sure! The boat parade. Christmas Eve greetings. All other parades. We occasionally ride at night with our glow wheels, love the friendly waves!

Q What is your favorite food? Seafood anything, Cajun all the better! And Jeanine makes an unreal Chicken Vaca Frita, love that mango!

Jeanine and me together in front of our Carrollwood home, and our three kids, Rob, Maggie and Mark (L to R)

OC REAL ESTATE

A Reform Could Possibly Be Coming Among Mortgage Lenders

By KT Tersowski/REALTOR®

Once refinancing has become a past subject, some firms will be forced to close their doors according to the CEO of Santander, Tim Wennes. Incongruous to the recent article, "A 'stakeout' among mortgage lenders is coming, according to CEO of a bank that left the business," large banks, including JPMorgan Chase and Wells Fargo, have been forced to reside from the home mortgage industry due to staff/budget cuts to adjust to lower clientele and volume now that rates are up to more normalized levels. From the beginning of the pandemic, fast forward to the beginning of 2022, rates have remained at historical lows and frankly for far too long in my opinion; our current inflation market has been a catalyst of this. However, some larger banks have been able to pivot their interests into other areas, including wealth management and automotive loans, to reallocate from whatever is producing the greater profit vs. mortgage loans that have significantly dropped. The good news for us, our preferred lenders, are not going anywhere. Whereas, some of the larger banks and credit unions are not providing mortgage services any longer. Some lenders have only been reliant on the refinancing portion, not thinking ahead into the future which has created this mortgage industry downfall.

BACK TO SCHOOL

It's back to school for Carrollwood ES and proudly earned an "A" school grade! This year's theme is "Level Up" and the PTA focus will be on "leveling up" technology for the school. PTA welcomed teachers back with a BBQ luncheon as they prepared their classrooms for their owl families. Meet the Teacher was a huge success with special guests Hootie and a sweet treat from Kona Ice.

PTA fundraising from last year brought in two new industrial fans for the outside pavilion and a playground shade structure to be installed in September to keep our owls and teachers cool. The Hootie logo facing Orange Grove is also getting an upgrade!

Thank you to our first group of business sponsors: Channelside Plumbing, West Florida Concrete, Party Yardy, Sweets by Kat, Culvers, and Hoopworx who along with our family memberships will help PTA provide programs for students, grants to teachers, and upgrade technology! Interested in becoming joining our Orange Grove Banner Club or becoming a PTA community member? Visit <https://carrollwood.memberhub.com/store> to view sponsorship options or email carrollwoodpta@gmail.com for more information.

Upcoming events include a Grandparent's Day breakfast in the pavilion, Dad's Club Meetings, a Back to School Bash, and Carrollwood's annual school carnival, Hootiefest will be held in October this year. Follow Carrollwood PTA on Facebook and IG to stay up-to-date on what is happening at school.

Mindfulness for Teens

by Kat Mackesy

Mindfulness for teens is a way to simply be present in your daily life. It doesn't take any special training or even any experience to be mindful; all you must do is decide that you are going to pay more attention to the present moment and bring a non-judgmental awareness to your surroundings. It's a way of interacting with all your inner and outer experiences, a rediscovery of the senses. In practicing mindfulness, you gain a deeper appreciation of the world you live in, the thoughts that run through your mind and the relationships you have with those around you. This deeper appreciation will cause a shift in your perception and allow you to cultivate a more balanced, joyful, and satisfying life.

Adults are always asking teens to look to the future, what college will you attend, what major will you study, what job will you choose, where do you see yourself in 5-10-20 years? Mindfulness asks you to focus on the now to be able to answer those questions with more accuracy. Some tools you can use to help cultivate that mindful life are meditation, journaling, breathing, and yoga.

Meditation is a way to slow down the mind, concentrate on the breath and settle into a place of mindful introspection that will help you learn a way to cope with the daily stressors as you travel through your mindfulness journey.

Journaling is a therapeutic way to help express your thoughts and is a physical way to manifest the life you envision for yourself.

Breathing — Focusing on the breath is one of the most important aspects of mindfulness. When you learn to control your breath, you learn to control your emotions, and your physical bodies.

Yoga is more than a physical practice, everything you do with attention to the breath, can be considered 'yoga.'

Even if you feel that you are not flexible or you have never practiced yoga, remember it's called yoga practice, not yoga perfect.

Mindfulness is a personal investigation. It requires practice and action. You must want it in your life. The practices of mindfulness will serve as a tool to help deal with anger, anxiety, stress, grief, and many other difficult and normal experiences teens all go through. It's an ancient practice that has been around a long time; by adding these simple practices into your life, you can lay a foundation for awareness and growth.

Hello Original Carrollwood Neighbors,

We are asking our neighborhood to get involved and show your support to make Carrollwood Elementary School (CES) a K-8 school, starting in the 2023-2024 school year.

We are fortunate to live in a neighborhood where Carrollwood Elementary School (CES) is longstanding, thriving and boasts an "A" grade, our current zoned middle school is not an option that families are willing to explore.

How does this help our families?

- Schools like CES bring connection through the community.
- We will once again have pride in our public middle school.
- This will bring funding back to our District.
- State funding that is given to schools based on each child's enrollment is called full-time equivalent (FTE) money. Schools lose FTE money when students choose private, charter and home school options.
- Home values are directly correlated to school grades (EX: Plant HS).
- This can be done with very little additional funding by using existing resources within the district.

K-8

Take a moment to email your local representatives. Include the reasons that YOUR FAMILY is impacted because of our current zoning situation, and how it could change if Carrollwood became a K-8 environment. Please keep your email unique to your family; do not copy and paste this letter. Here are some talking points to help you get started:

- We are concerned residents looking to bring pride to our public schools.
- This will increase local FTE funding.
- CES has unmatched community connection, which is being lost as families scatter for middle schools.
- What other middle school are you most likely to send your child(ren) to, given the current "D" rating of our zoned school?
- How is the cost of private school affecting your family?
- Has your family considered moving due to the cost associated with not using the public middle school?
- What other unique perspective do you have surrounding this topic?
